

DEFENSE PLANS WOULD CONTROL ALL RESOURCES

Pershing Thinks This Should be Done for War Purposes

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—National defense plans of the war department contemplate government control of the entire resources of the country under an efficiency council by board of control. General Pershing announced tonight speaking before the Merchants association of New York.

"According to these plans," General Pershing said, "the industrial and manufacturing institutions, agriculture and transportation would be under government control while the personnel pertaining to all of them would be mustered into the service as are those that are called to the colors. An efficiency council or board of control conforming to our experience in the war would then be placed in charge of all resources with authority to make such disposition of them as would best promote the success of the nation in war."

"The initial organization and the system to be adopted should soon be in such tangible form that the personnel could be organized in readiness to take up their duties when it was needed. It is the duty of the war department to study the general needs of the country in both men and material to meet the exigencies of war. But our recommendations often go unheeded partly because those who hold the purse strings will not understand and partly because in the past it has been a popular thing to cry out against the army as being militaristic or as dangerous to the liberties of the people." Discussing the function of business in war General Pershing, said:

"War Business Enterprise. That the conduct of war is a big business enterprise which involves a knowledge of business principles on the part of leaders was vividly brought out during the world war and preliminary preparation necessary to carry to success once we become involved in war should appeal to every business man. It is regrettable that a greater number of business men with vision do not make the sacrifice and enter public life during peace and giving their countrymen benefit of practical business experience in the management of both national and international affairs instead of leaving those duties to the professional office seeker and the political soothsayer."

"In strictly military service beginning with the revolution, the army has received an average of one important act every year and a half of its existence and besides foreign wars its services include the suppression of rebellion, insurrection, conspiracy uprising and Indian war, from Shay's rebellion in 1786 down to Villa's raid on Columbus, New Mexico, in 1916. During all this time the army has stood as the bulwark of American liberty and has protected our homes and our firesides."

"Even now conditions here at home are such as to indicate the necessity of some reliable force to guard against unseen influence at work in our very midst."

CONSOLIDATION OF NORTHERN ROADS IS IN CRITICAL LIGHT

Burlington Head Makes a Strong Argument Against Plan

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—Tentative proposals of the interstate commerce commission for consolidation of railroads in the northwest were put under critical light at a hearing today, when officials of the Hill group, the Northern Pacific, Great Northern and Chicago, Burlington & Quincy began the offering of testimony.

General consolidation of railroads as authorized by the transportation act has been planned by the commission to bring about a separation of the Great Northern from the other two lines named and its inclusion instead in a major railroad system along with the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul and the iron ore carrying lines entering Duluth in northern Minnesota.

Walker D. Hines, leading off for the Hill group, most of whose chief executives were present to participate, challenged the desirability of the suggested split in present railroad associations both from the point of view of the public welfare and the financial stability of the roads.

The Burlington owned by the two northern roads for many years had been built and integrated into co-operation with them, he asserted, adding that separation would be extremely undesirable.

Hale Holden, president of the Burlington, followed and in a detailed analysis of traffic and route conditions, declared the commission's proposals unsuitable and built up in disregard of the necessity for maintaining a north and south route through the west from the Gulf of Mexico.

SOIL CONDITIONS IN ILLINOIS ARE HELPED BY RAINS

Corn Husking Also Has Made Progress the Past Two Weeks

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—Drought conditions have been broken by general rains and soil conditions are much improved in Illinois, Indiana and Wisconsin according to the semi-monthly report of crop conditions in those states tonight.

"Temperatures were considerably above normal over the entire area," the report adds. "Corn husking has made splendid progress during the past two weeks. A considerable movement to market is noticeable altho the car shortage is apparent. Yields are variable but the quality is good. Prices are fair."

"Wheat and rye conditions are improved. The top growth is short but fairly even. No material change in acreage is noticeable. Potato digging is completed with yields and quality spotted."

"Apple and pear picking is completed. Much of the apple crop from commercial orchards is going to storage. Commercial orchards produced well and the quality is good. The agriculture crop is being made into cider or being wasted."

"Livestock generally is in good condition altho there are some scattered cases of hog cholera. Except around industrial centers the farm labor supply is plentiful but wages remain comparatively high."

OPERATORS AND MINERS ADJURN WITHOUT RESULT

Will Meet December 6 to Try and Arrive at Some Agreement

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—The joint conference of bituminous coal operators and miners representatives meeting here in an effort to arrive at some basis for conducting wage negotiations next January voted tonight to adjourn until Dec. 6th, not having arrived at an agreement.

John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine workers, and P. H. Penna of Terre Haute, an operator who acted as chairman of the conference, issued the following joint statement when the meeting adjourned:

"The joint commission of operators and miners has devoted itself diligently to the matters for which the convention was convened. Some substantial progress has been made and there are grounds for believing that at a later date a definite program can be agreed upon by representatives of the operators and miners."

In order to give additional consideration to the matters in hand the committee has unanimously agreed to take a recess until Wednesday, December 6, when we will convene again in this city."

The conference considered half a dozen suggestions for a basis for wage negotiations to be started in January. These included national agreements, district agreements, negotiations on the old central competitive field plan with the addition of western Kentucky, western Pennsylvania and West Virginia. The operators and miners went home tonight with the central competitive field basis as the outstanding favorite.

Whether this plan will be adopted as it has stood in the past or whether other states will be added is not decided but both operators and miners expressed hopes that an agreement might be reached on the central competitive field basis.

The operators left with the frank intention of finding out the sentiment of their fellow operators at home and talking over the situation in an effort to determine what plan will meet with the most approval.

HARDING TO MAKE FINAL DECISION IN PACKER'S MERGER

President is Keeping Open Mind Until all Facts Are Known

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—President Harding will make the final decision for the government on the proposal that Armour & Co. purchase Morris & Co., another of the "big five" Chicago packers, it was indicated today in high administrative circles. The president has discussed the matter with J. Ogden Armour and will go over it in detail with Secretary Wallace, as soon as the experts of the department of agriculture have completed their study of the plan.

The executive was reported as being of the opinion on the basis of the information now in his possession that there would be no objection at law to the proposed consolidation in view of the stricter government regulations of the packing industry provided for in the packers and stock yard control act.

It was emphasized that he was keeping an open mind until all the facts bearing on the situation had been presented.

Secretary Wallace said today there would be no definite decision for several days.

He explained that the matter was in the hands of the department experts and that he would give the proposal full consideration after they had made recommendations. The experts were understood to have asked for information supplemental to that originally furnished by Mr. Armour. This was presented by F. E. White, vice president and Charles F. Falkner, Jr., chief counsel for Armour & Co. Among other things under consideration it was understood was the probable effect of the merger upon the subsidiary corporations of the two principal companies.

No Precedent Set.

The administration officers said that a favorable decision by the government on Mr. Armour's proposal would not necessarily set a precedent for government approval of consolidation of corporations in other lines of industries such as that recently proposed in the case of several of the so-called independent steel companies. It was explained that quite a different situation was presented since the government regulation of the packing industry was provided by law where there was no such regulation in the steel and other lines of business.

In outlining to the president the situation which Armour & Co. believed made desirable and necessary the consolidation of that company and Morris & Co., Mr. Armour was understood to have emphasized that the packing industry was particularly hard hit by the recent business depression. His opinion was that unless there were mergers within the industry, some of the packers would be unable to get along.

GERMANY MUST MEND HER WAYS ALLIES DECIDE

Allied Powers Prepare to Bring Land of Kaiser to Terms

(By The Associated Press)
PARIS, Nov. 17.—The allied powers thru the council of ambassadors have informed Germany that all questions concerning the withdrawal of the military control commission in Germany have been suspended until the German government gives the fullest satisfaction for what are termed flagrant violations of the military clauses of the treaty of Versailles, committed in the past six months, and shows willingness to abide by the commission's instructions.

The note of the allies was sent after the receipt of a German communication on the subject of a degree. In this communication Germany is said to have disregarded totally the long series of notes of complaint sent by the allies and to have declared she was glad to learn the allies were about to end their military control and permit Germany to revert back to normal.

The note also ignored formal allied representation to the Berlin government of September 29, consequent on the large number of acts of aggression against the allied military in their work of inspection.

The allied note of today demands an apology and reparations for recent incidents at Passau and Stettin. In requesting immediate reply the allies say their patience is about exhausted.

The council of ambassadors also is making another demand for the German naval enlistment list which has been repeatedly refused them the last six months. It is said the allies suspect that Germany is exceeding her quota of enlistments and violating the conditions of training provided for in the peace treaty.

The allies have decided to warn Germany that she will not be permitted to manufacture new war inventions in which she at present is said to be actively engaged. The allies cannot prevent experiments in such inventions.

M. Poincare virtually gave notice that a final agreement on reparations must come out of the Brussels conference in December or France would take her own measures. He said it categorically there could be no regulation of the French share of German reparations unless it was in the form of a transfer of part of Germany's debt to France to the creditors of France, and that there could be no moratorium without effecting guarantees.

These declarations drew applause from the chamber, only the socialists and communists abstaining.

Just before the vote was taken the debate became violent with clashes between the royalists and communists and between Premier Briand and Leon Daudet, editor of L'Action Francaise.

Such an uproar developed that the president had to suspend the session twice.

REPRESENTATIVE OF TURKS FEARS PARLEY RESULT

Believes Allies are Arranging Terms Beforehand

(By The Associated Press)
PARIS, Nov. 17.—Before leaving for Lausanne this evening Ismet Pasha, head of the Turkish Nationalist delegation to the forthcoming conference said he had full powers from the Ankara assembly to conclude terms of peace. It was apparent that he was not sure he would be able to reach a satisfactory conclusion.

"Well, will it be peace or war," he asked in the course of a conversation. "Will the allies let us have peace?"

During his visit to Paris, Ismet has been much disturbed by reports that the allies were arranging terms of peace before the opening of the conference and that later they would merely present him with joint terms that would not permit discussion.

In many quarters there is apparently much speculation as to the eventual attitude of the British if the latter attempt to continue the occupation of Constantinople or to restrict Turkish control.

The Turks freely assert there is no solution other than war. "My instructions on that point are absolute," Ismet said. "The assembly at Ankara reasons not in terms of Europe but by its own logic. As far as the Straits are concerned we are indifferent. Whatever satisfies the allies and others interested will satisfy us."

Turkish spokesmen indicate that if the British wish to retain their present forces at Chanak and if the French are willing there probably will be no Turkish objection.

One significant fact advanced in connection with the possibilities in the Anglo-Turk relationship is that the Ankara government's treaty with Afghanistan provides for an offensive-defensive alliance against Great Britain. The signers of this agreement are obliged to assist each other in the event of a British attack.

While Ismet is entering the conference with the firm intention of obtaining a peace based in the main on the total independence of Turkey from outside political and financial control he is prepared to leave the conference if the terms of the allies conflict with his independence.

Ismet appears to be entering the parleys with reluctance despite his air of smiling confidence and cordiality. One of the contributors to this reluctance is a secret distrust of British intentions to keep the Turks embroiled in war. One of the hopeful intimations that Ismet has received here is that the allies will insist only on reparations for property losses suffered since 1914 by French, British, Italian and American individuals.

PLANS FOR SHIP SUBSIDY BILL ARE GOTTEN UNDER WAY

Open Door to Unlimited Amendment of Measure on Floor

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—Plans for piloting the ship subsidy bill thru congress got under way today with an agreement by Republican leaders to open the door to unlimited amendment of the measure on the floor of the house and with the stipulation that a final vote shall be had November 29. Chairman Lasker of the shipping board predicted that it would be enacted into law because the miracle of America is that at the final moment of decision right and common sense will prevail.

The agreement for a vote in the house was reached at a conference attended by Speaker Clegg, Representative Mondell, Republican floor leader, Chairman Campbell of the rules committee and members of the merchant marine and of the sterling committees.

Chairman Campbell suggested and the other leaders present agreed that a rule should be presented under which the bill would be taken up for general debate next Thursday.

Three full days would be given over to general discussion and then the measure would be taken up item by item with three days for amendment before a final vote.

At any rate, there is not the least surprise over the announcement that the miners and operators have failed to agree in the conferences that have been in progress in Chicago during recent days.

The Chicago Protective association is opposed to the adoption of the proposed constitution. Most of its listed reasons pertain to the supreme court and its relation to the document. The Chicago efficiency bureau on the other hand, is supporting the constitution and assigns its list of reasons.

The interstate commerce commission is considering the plan of uniting into groups, many of the railroads of the U. S. If the C. P. & St. L. could only be listed with the right group perhaps some of its revenue troubles would be at an end.

Those who have read Mr. Beveridge's informing "Life of Joan Marshall" will not be sorry that Mr. Beveridge failed in his senatorial race in Indiana. Now instead of serving at Washington he proposes to devote his time to further literary work, and is to write a book based upon Lincoln's relationship to constitutional law.

If the Lincoln book is equal to the Marshall work it will be a very valuable contribution.

For a long time it has been a custom to place on the walls of railroad stations the names of the towns or cities in which the stations are located, presumably as a matter of value and interest to travelers. In some towns the idea has been followed further by the residents who have caused

As proof of this changing world comes the request of Secretary Denby that the names of towns now be emblazoned upon the roofs of stations to serve as guide posts for aircraft pilots. STATUES TO THE LIVING

(Chicago Post)

A statue to Gen. John J. Pershing, commander of the American expeditionary forces, has been erected in a public park in the city of San Francisco. Pershing is a good man, but the placing of the statue established a bad precedent.

John J. Pershing is alive, very much alive in fact. It is not customary in the United States to erect statues to men who still live. The chances are that the American soldier whom San Francisco is trying to honor will stand foremost among the objectors to the course taken by his admirers. Some day John J. Pershing doubtless will have many statues erected to his memory. Grant, Sherman, Sheridan and Lee were not honored during their lifetimes, as San Francisco is honoring Pershing. Statues to living men have no place in a democracy.

The portrait of no living American is allowed to appear on our currency or on our postage stamps. No battleship and no forts are named for living navy and army heroes. The dead and not the living are so honored, and it is better so.

REAL DEMON (NEA)

What is it, in your life, that you fear or dread most? And how much effect is this fear or dread having on your health, fortunes, state of mind and general happiness?

Along this line, you will be interested in a peculiar case that has been perplexing the Workmen's Compensation Commission of New York state.

In a hat factory some of the employees got mercurial poisoning from handling dyes. One of the workers who became ill and had to hunt another job asked the commission for money to cover the loss of several weeks' pay.

A medical specialist, testifying at the hearing, says that this particular employee's illness was due to fear, not to poisoning. That is, seeing his fellow-workers become ill, he grew afraid that he also might get poisoned, and worried himself into neurosis, a nervous condition in which the patient often imagines that he has a physical illness—in this case poisoning.

Fear, under various terrifying scientific names, in the last few years since the war ended, has become a common disease. Whenever a group of physicians get together they begin talking about this pandemic of nervous apprehension.

Doctors' offices are crowded with people—fearing that their hearts are about to stop beating, that they are on the verge of a nervous breakdown, that an annoying acid condition of the stomach may be stealthily advancing cancer.

Probably three-fourths of these maladies are imaginary. They are, fortunately, making people realize the mind's vast power over the body, for good or bad.

Basil King's book, "The Conquest of Fear," suggests that most of the world's troubles these days are due to the demon fear.

"There is not a government which is not afraid of some other government. There is not a government which is not afraid of its own people. There is not a people government which is not afraid of its own government. There is not a country in which one group is not afraid of some other group. All is rivalry, enmity, suspicion, confusion and distrust, while men's hearts are fainting for fear and for anxious expectation of what is coming on the world."

By Berton Braley

UP in the forest now the leaves are falling, Matting the earth with red and brown and gold. The birds, ere long, will hear the southland calling; The autumn days are bright, the nights are cold. And as I struggle at my daily labor Soft in my ears comes a whispering breeze Which says, "Come out, the forest calls you, neighbor! There are no lovelier days and nights than these.

"THE brisk air sets your pulses beating quicker, Life is a tangle in these gorgeous days, Each breath you take is like a draft of ichor; The woods with many colors are ablaze; Gone is the summer's languor, but the water, Clear, cold and limpid, laps the pebbly shores, Nature is fairer than you ever thought her, Now is the time to seek the Out-Of-Doors.

"COME, slip away. Put on your old attire, Tempt some good pal to come along as well. Think of the nights beside a crackling fire, Think of the frosty mornings and the smell Of bacon in the pan, the fragrant savor Of boiling coffee in the morning glow. These are the Days! You hesitate, you waver— Back to the woods, old scout, come on—let's go!"

GIFT CAMPAIGN IS EXPLAINED

Idea of Campaign Was Secured From East St. Louis—Merchants Pays Cost From Own Funds—Increased Business Makes This Possible.

Many people are not well informed, or do not thoroughly understand the objects of the Jacksonville Merchant's big Gift Campaign and a word of explanation is due them in order that it may be made clear, just what is being attempted. The idea of the campaign was gotten from East St. Louis and improved upon by the commercial division of the Jacksonville Chamber of Commerce.

It was found upon investigation that by instituting this campaign and increasing business, that the merchants could afford to purchase the gifts that they now have in the gift room in the Park hotel building. Further investigation showed that these gifts could be secured at manufacturer's costs and this enabled the committee to enlarge the list of gifts which it was the first intention to give.

Only members of the Chamber of Commerce were solicited to go into this campaign as it was an untried venture in Jacksonville and there were 107 business men secured to take part in the project. Each of these was sold a minimum of $25 of coupons and the campaign was opened. Each of the 107 merchants enlisted share the expenses of the Gift Campaign proportionately.

On the opening day each person who called at the gift room was given a coupon which entitled him to an opportunity to secure one of the gifts which will be given away on the third day of January. These coupons have a value equal to those given out at the stores. Only first class merchandise of every description was purchased or donated to be given away in order that those people seeing them would be well satisfied with their gifts.

It makes no difference with which of the 107 merchants one trades, the patron is entitled to the same opportunity for securing gifts. Purchases at any one, or all of the 107 merchants, entitled customers to coupons. The stubs can be deposited at the gift room any time before January 3rd. The barrel is shaken up several times each day so there will be no danger of one coupon standing a better chance of being drawn than another.

I have added to my line of office and school supplies the Whiting & Cook line of Fancy Box Stationery, Engraved Christmas and New Year Greeting Cards, Children's Friendship and Gift Books, Diaries, and Address Books.

CLIMAX PRESENTED TO LARGE AUDIENCE

Play Presented Under Auspices of Local Branch of University Women—Was Enthusiastically Received.

The presentation of "The Climax" at the high school auditorium last evening under the auspices of the Jacksonville Branch of the American Association of University Women was one of the most notable events of the season in this city.

The play, presented together with "Pater Noster," by Laurence Clarke and Theodore Rose was one of such dramatic force and appeal as to hold the undivided interest of the large audience until the moment of the last curtain.

As a curtain raiser to "The Climax," Francois Coppee's thrilling one act play, "Pater Noster" was given. Hilda Englund, the noted Swedish-American actress, played superbly the tragic role of Madame Rose, gripping her audience with her powerful acting.

Mercedes Desmore, the brilliant and beautiful young English actress in "The Climax," captivated every one in the charming role of Adellena and Maurice Drew, as the Italian music master displayed artistry of a rare description. "The Climax," Edward Locke's famous three act play, has been presented with great success in New York and other cities and the coming of such brilliant actors as appeared here last night, is an unusual occurrence in Jacksonville.

The production was given for the purpose of raising money to establish a scholarship fund which will be used here for the benefit of some local young woman. Mrs. Garm Norbury was the chairman of the committee in charge of the undertaking and the other members of the committee included Mrs. Frank Heintz, Mrs. W. A. Fay, Miss Ruby Neville, Miss Florence Madden and Miss Isabel Woodman.

NOTED ORGANIST TO APPEAR HERE

Dr. Charles Heintz, organist and director of Music, at the Carnegie Institute, Pittsburgh, Penn., who comes to Jacksonville on Thursday, November 23rd, to inaugurate the new organ at Central Christian church is considered one of the foremost organists in the United States. Among American organists, none is held in higher esteem by those in this profession, than Dr. Heintz, and it will be a rare privilege for Jacksonville people to hear him in concert here next week.

This noted organist is the first American to be honored with the appointment of organist and director of music of the Carnegie Institute in Pittsburgh. This appointment is considered the most desirable for an organist, not only in America, but in the world, and Dr. Heintz's tenure of office has been attended with conspicuous success. He took his present position in Pittsburgh in 1907 and his duties there consist in giving organ recitals at the Carnegie Institute and in other places all over the country.

During the past year Dr. Heintz was honored in being selected to give the opening recital at the first Convention of the American Guild of Organists in New York City and during the recent Panama-Pacific Exposition at San Francisco, he delivered five recitals. Before going to Pittsburgh Dr. Heintz was organist and choir master at St. Paul's church, Brooklyn, and held for eleven years the position of organist and choirmaster at Church of the Ascension, simultaneously with that of organist and director of Temple Bethel and Instructor of Organ, Harmony and Counterpoint at the National Conservatory in New York.

Following a recent concert in New York City, the New Music Review contains the following comment: "Charles Heintz of Pittsburgh played a two hour program of pure organ music with commanding force and artistry as to hold his entire audience in closest attention to the very last note. It was a triumph for organ music, organ playing, the modern organ and—Charles Heintz."

The program which Dr. Heintz will present in inaugurating the new organ at Central Christian church, November 23, contains numbers of rare beauty and force. It will include selections from such well known and favored composers as Handel, Haydn, Saint-Saens, Bach, Gullmunt, Wagner and Bizet.

TEACHERS' CERTIFICATE SOUGHT BY MANY

List of Applicants for Authority to Enter Educational Work Is Especially Large.

Sixty-five applicants for teachers certificates of the second grade began taking examinations Friday in the office of H. H. Vasconcellos, county superintendent of schools. The examinations were conducted in the superintendent's office owing to the fact that the grand jury and the circuit court were in session and the rooms usually used at examination time were occupied for other purposes.

The examination of the sixty-five will be concluded today and fifteen or more applicants for first grade or high school certificates will also be examined. The list of applicants is unusually large, Mr. Vasconcellos said yesterday.

Waverly, Franklin, Chapin and other high schools in the county were well represented in the group in addition to the Jacksonville high school. The examination is conducted in accordance with the state law and the questions submitted are those supplied by the state examining board.

Instant Quaker Oats

Cooks to perfection in 3 to 5 minutes

Now there's a new reason for insisting on Quaker Oats. Our experts have perfected a quick-cooking Quaker which cooks in 3 to 5 minutes. So it means an instant dish almost ready to serve.

It has our super-flavor. All Quaker Oats are flaked from pure grain only. We get but ten pounds from a bushel.

But in Instant Quaker the oats are cut before flaking. They are flaked very thin and partly cooked. So the flakes are smaller and thinner—that is all. And those small thin flakes cook quickly.

Your grocer has both styles. Both offer incomparable flavor. Instant offers the quickest-cooking oats in the world. Say which you want.

RED CROSS NOTES

In the post war program of the American Red Cross, four years after the end of the greatest clash of arms in all history, first call upon the services and the funds of the organization is still for ministrations to the ex-service man physically shattered in that conflict. Adhering to its policy relating to the disabled veterans and their dependents, the National organization has set aside in its budget for the fiscal year ending 30, 1923, a total of $3,039,692.90, an increase of $366,000 over the amount spent for soldier service last year. This total will be increased by nearly 3,000 chapters engaging in service to veterans by more than $5,000,000 so that approximately $9,000,000 of Red Cross funds will be devoted this year to services the government is not authorized to render and for which it has neither the funds nor the facilities.

Care of the ex-service men and their families is regarded as a primary Red Cross responsibility, and that it should be neither indiscriminate nor niggardly requires patient study of an intricate problem and continual readjustments to situations as they exist and develop.

Individual Service.
"The functions of the Red Cross," says Chairman Payne, in his annual report, "is not to usurp the government's responsibilities, but to supplement official activity, harmoniously co-operate with official plans and methods; seek out the individual in the starved condition of mass and his peculiar needs."

The Red Cross acquires and distributes information among the men and their families; assists the U. S. Veterans' bureau with the personal education in individual cases, prepares and furnishes comforts, recreation, and the many necessary services which the government, by its very nature, can procure only from voluntary assistance. These obligations and privileges fall primarily to the Red Cross chapters, whose volunteer members are kept acquainted with the official situation thru liaison district officers of the Veterans' district of the Veterans' bureau.

To the extent of its financial and personnel resources the Red Cross must continue to discharge this mandate from the people.

Problem of Magnitude.
Outside of the active Red Cross chapter membership few persons appreciate the magnitude of the problem of the disabled ex-service man. Today there are under treatment in government hospitals more than 25,000 veterans. In the opinion of the surgeon general of the army the peak of disabled men under reconstruction will not be reached until 1926.

The basis of this stupendous work, reaching into the remotest and most isolated parts of the country, is the individual and the Red Cross is concentrating upon it to the end that the disabled ex-service man may obtain all his rights under the law, that his especial wants may be promptly supplied, that his own and his family's situation may be rendered happy and free from worry and care, and that in the outlook upon the future these men shall visualize incentives for independent and fruitful efforts.

Representatives, too, at all important army, navy, and marine corps hospitals, stations and camps to act as a "medium of communication between the American people and their army and navy," as authorized by its congressional charter.

Lasting

LASTING service qualities of well-built vitrified brick pavements are brought home more forcibly to taxpayers who have had an opportunity to compare such pavements—twenty and thirty years old—with substitutes that have worn out in from five to ten years. Consideration of first cost alone often leads to the adoption of a substitute pavement. Rapid deterioration, heavy annual repair costs and the need for early replacement frequently is the costly lesson taught by experience.

VITRIFIED Brick PAVEMENTS

properly constructed, are famous for their long life and low maintenance costs. Brick pavements—built as they should be built—always gain by comparison with others. Communities that have tried substitutes ultimately return to vitrified brick to obtain lasting and inexpensive pavement service.

FARM BUREAU NOTES

Meeting of Poultry Association

The president, Jean Curtis announced at the meeting of the poultry association at farm bureau office on Thursday evening that the poultry show will be held the week of Dec. 11 to 14 in the long room of C. M. Strawn's garage on West Court street. Frank Tarbell of Havana is to judge the show. Prizes will be given for chickens, turkeys, ducks, geese and pigeons. W. E. Spoons and William McNamara have been appointed a committee to solicit donations for the show and D. T. Helmlich and James Weber have been appointed a committee on catalogue. Louis Biggs, secretary of the poultry association is anxious to extend the membership so that it will include poultry raisers in every part of Morgan County. The show will quite likely have some educational features that will attract the interest of the people of the county. Culling and caponizing demonstrations are planned.

Caponizing

James Weber and George W. Adams of Jacksonville and Alfred Swinger of Orleans have been successful at this work. James Weber stated on one Christmas he killed a white Orpington capon that weighed 14 pounds. The meat of this fowl was as fine as that of any turkey. Some parties living in Greene county have reported the sales of capons at prices as high as 50 cents per pound. There is a special trade to these. The Farm Bureau is interested in fostering this new project among poultry raisers who care to keep their cockerels beyond the broiler stage.

Controlling the San Jose Scale

The orchardists of our State have found that lime sulphur as ordinarily applied will not entirely control the San Jose scale when an orchard is badly infested. W. P. Flint the state entomologist is recommending as a fall spray an oil emulsion spray to be followed in the spring by the regular dormant sprays of lime sulphur. Mr. Flint recommends a home made oil spray made from diamond paraffin oil, water and potash lye soap.

Interest in Dairy Cattle

The writer attended a discussion sale of grade Guernseys and Jerseys at Winchester yesterday. The prices that these animals brought indicates a healthy interest in good cows of a dairy strain. We are too recently out of a beef cattle stage in this county to thoroughly appreciate dairy cattle. However, the time is not far distant when we shall find it necessary to change our views. When we do it will only be history repeating itself. The men who gives thought to the dairy business rarely go to the wall.

Baby Beef Clubs

One of the outstanding features of the Green County Fair is a baby beef club. While these calves have always been entered in the names of boys, we strongly suspect that the parents are into the game as much as the boys. We are inclined to favor local clubs in the various communities with a final round-up at the county fair by those who have the time and inclination to show. The meeting of the breeders at the farm bureau office Friday night is for the purpose of seeing to what extent the prominent breeders of our county care to get behind a club like this and help the boys and girls find suitable animals and also suitable local leaders.

MANAGER CHERRY SERVICE STATION MEETS STRANGER

A stranger to Jacksonville, with several members of his family, drove in to Cherry's Service Station Friday and approaching the Manager, Ralph Withee, remarked: "We've heard something about you people here in Jacksonville passing out Gift Coupons; are you doing that little thing?" "Yes Sir," was Ralph's prompt come-back, "we're giving them on every sort of service this station has got, and right there let me tell you who say you are a stranger to this town, it's some service; what can we do for you?" "Well, says the stranger, "that being the case I am going to give you some job. In the first place this car needs washing; there are one or two parts wanted; there's a tire to be replaced; then there's oil, gas and some air—the way give coupons on air too? And say, how many coupons do we get, and is your service any different than if you didn't give these coupons; don't feel offended because I ask all these questions—I just want to know, that's all."

"Far from being offended," replied Mr. Withee, "I am glad you asked; we want people to ask questions because when they do we certainly are not going to miss my chance of getting all the facts about our ability to serve the public thoroughly impressed."

The Cherry Service Station has the Merchants Gift Coupons for all comers, for all manner of service and for all accounts—old accounts, running accounts and for cash—for purchases of gasoline, oils, greases, for car washing and car storage, all accessories and supplies and its livery (automobile) service; and, there is no deviation in the high class of service rendered or increase in prices, charged because of gift coupons presented.

Cherry's Service Station is located on North Main Street just one block north of the main square. Drive in, leave your car, your bundles, wash up, phone your friends—make yourself at home.

If You Pay Your Account at Our Store Now

We will present you with one Gift Coupon for every dollar paid. This applies to every account regardless of how long it has been running.

SIGMA PI HOLDS OPEN HOUSE MEET

Sigma Pi society of Illinois College postponed its regular program from Friday evening until Monday, holding open house at the society hall for old-time members and friends of the society in honor of Homecoming. The number of men from the society whose duties on the football team precluded their participation in late festivities the night before was a contributing reason for the postponement of the program.

Chef Had Plenty But He Could Hardly Eat

Even an expert chef for an up-to-date restaurant, with everything heart could wish in the eating line and the skill to prepare it in the most appetizing manner, finds life miserable and work a burden with his appetite gone and his health all broken up on account of stomach trouble.

According to his own statement such had been the case for two years with William Lackey, 865 North Wells St. restaurant, who says he recently found relief by taking Tanlac.

Mr. Lackey now boasts of a "wonderful appetite" and a stomach that digests such things as ham and eggs, corned beef and cabbage, and rich pastries, "foods that would have almost put me out of commission before I took Tanlac."

"Before I ran across this medicine," said he, "I was just having to lay off from my work for a week at a time just on account of the numerous ills I suffered from indigestion. But when I tell you I have gained fifteen pounds, eat and digest anything, and am on the job every day feeling fine, you may know how I appreciate Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.—Adv.

TIGERS WILL MEET BULL DOGS TODAY

Main Game in East—Pittsburgh and W. & J. Another Feature of Eastern Gridirons.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—With Yale and Princeton in the leading drama, football will stage another host of spectacles on eastern gridirons tomorrow.

While the Tiger and the Bull grapple at Princeton, other contests of scarcely less interest will bring together Harvard and Brown, Pittsburgh and Washington, Jefferson, Penn State and Pennsylvania, Colgate and Syracuse, and Dartmouth and Columbia.

Victory in several of these games will hinge on the mood of the pigskin gods.

This is particularly true of the Yale-Princeton contest. In no respect does one team stand out as strongly superior to the other, and, as was the case in the Princeton-Harvard clash Saturday, the human equation, the fumble or the brilliant individual feat—may tip the scales.

Princeton, with sensational victories over Chicago and Harvard, a team tried and ready for its losing battle of the season. The players will enter the contest confident, but not dangerously so.

Princeton has a strong offense, with good running plays and an overhead attack capable of holding the secondary defense deep in its own territory. In addition there is the football alertness and keen ball following intuitiveness which has stood the Tigers in such good stead. Man for along the line and in the backfield the Princeton combination compares favorably with Yale. In physical condition and reserve material the Tigers seem as formidable as the blue of not a trifle stronger.

Advantage of Home Field. Playing on their own field is another advantage. Offensively the Tigers are perhaps stronger than on the defense.

Yale will oppose Princeton with a team which appears to be the best that has represented the blue in several years. Although defeated by Iowa early in the season the Elis showed flashes of unusual power even at that time and have shown a steady increase in strength and football resourcefulness in each succeeding game. Holding the Army to a 7 to 7 tie just two weeks before the soldiers played a scoreless tie with Notre Dame gives a fair line on the power and ability of the Bull Dog. The center combination of the Yale line is an extremely strong and aggressive trio. The tackles compare well with those of the Nassau eleven.

There appears to be little difference in the playing of the ends. Yale forwards are likely to hurry the Princeton passing with their savage charging and the battles of the lines undoubtedly will be a feature of the game.

It appears reasonably certain that punting and passing will be emphasized by both teams.

Next in interest to the Yale-Princeton game will be the meeting of Washington and Jefferson and Pittsburgh. W. & J. with its record of victories unbroken for two and a half years, is a most formidable foe and should win.

Pittsburgh always has given the Presidents a terrific battle and despite defeats by West Virginia and Lafayette the Panthers can be expected to force W. & J. to show its best football in order to win by more than a one touchdown margin.

Harvard, if represented by its first string players, should defeat Brown, but with the Yale game just a week away she is not likely to play any harder than is necessary to hold a small but safe margin.

THREE UNDEFEATED CONTENDERS START

Chicago, Iowa and Michigan Must Win to Keep State Clean—May Be Some More Upsets.

CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—Three undefeated contenders for the western conference gridiron championship will risk their chances against dangerous opponents tomorrow in games which probably will narrow the competition for the title.

Chicago must triumph over Illinois on Stag Field. Michigan must take Wisconsin into camp at Ann Arbor, and Iowa must conquer Ohio at Columbus if this trio is to remain on top of the heap tomorrow night. In this season of upsets "Big Ten" followers will not be surprised if one of the unbeaten three is relegated to the losing column for the final games of the season a week later.

Each of the three games is expected to develop into bitterly fought contests with close scores. Illinois and Chicago traditional gridiron foes always wage a desperate battle and tomorrow's contest is no exception. The Illinois eleven which sprung the surprise of the season by defeating Wisconsin 3 to 0 a week ago, will be primed to upset the Maroons if possible. The powerful Michigan eleven which has not been scored on this season is ready for a bruising contest against Wisconsin. The Badgers will take the field with the hope of eliminating Michigan from the championship scramble as well as evening the score between the two institutions. Of the seven contests between these rivals, Michigan has won four, two went to Wisconsin and the 1921 game ended in a 7 to 7 tie.

The Wolverines as a result of being idle last Saturday have had two weeks of preparations to stop the drives of Captain Williams and Gibson, the crack Badger halfbacks. The game promises to be a thrilling exhibition of open play, and advance indications point to a capacity crowd of 42,000.

Iowa 1921 champion of the "big ten" meets Ohio State for the first time tomorrow and the Hawkeyes, defeated three times this season, are expected to wage a last ditch fight to throw the Iowans out of the running.

The Hawkeyes appear to be the stronger, and are favored to win. The contest is expected to be witnessed by 40,000 persons.

More than ordinary interest is attached to the game between Notre Dame and Butler at Indianapolis tomorrow. Neither team has been beaten. The Butler eleven which is coached by "Pat Page," a former University of Chicago star has hung up eight straight victories, including a triumph over Illinois at the start of the season.

CARTHAGE WON FROM LINCOLN 27-0. Carthage, Ill., Nov. 17.—Carthage College football team defeated Lincoln College 27 to 0 today. The game was played in a driving rain. Lyons starred for Carthage and Alberts was Lincoln's best man.

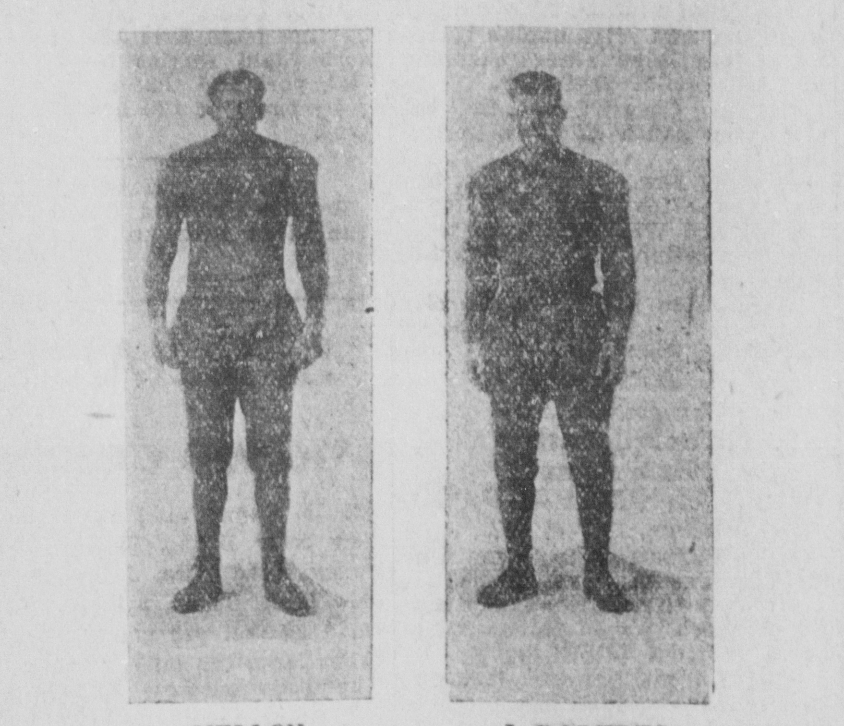

It was a masse on a tight line-up on the end rail that finally sent him away from the table on his miss at 144. At the end of the inning, Horemans led 144 to 6 and Schaefer came to the table, missed a short single cushion, which resulted in the Belgian going right on.

Schaefer was careless as he stepped to the table. He paid the penalty with a miss which resulted in Horemans backing his great run with another cluster that tallied 111. It was of the same character as its predecessor with masses in abundant profusion before he failed on a two cushion carom on one of the corners. At the end of the third inning Horemans led the champion by 255 to 6.

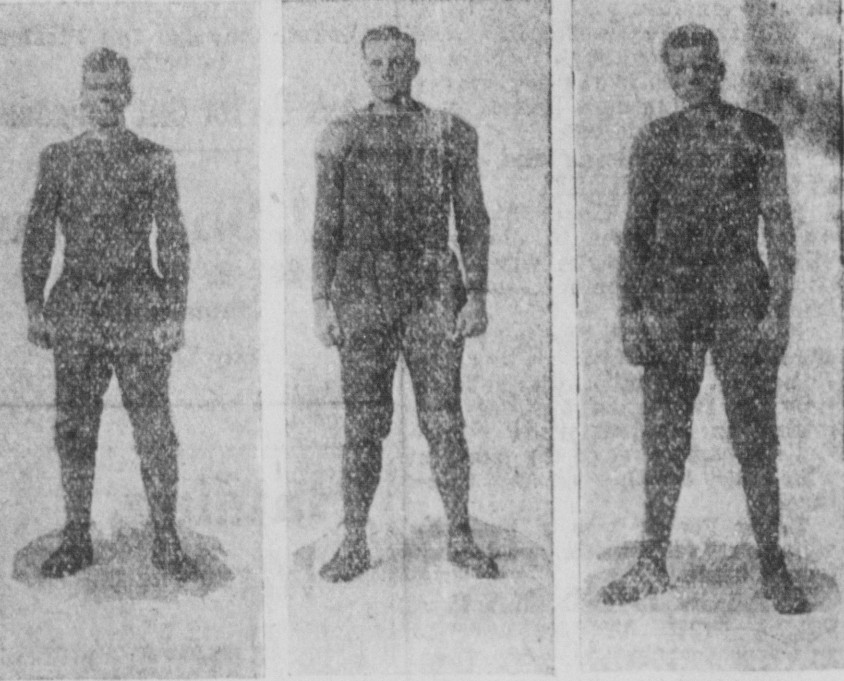

Schaefer was badly off form. He played open table and cushion caroms with all the bad breaks of a player out of luck and stroke. The champion tallied 29 and 10 respectively in his fourth and fifth innings all of which represented hard shooting. At the close of the fourth inning, Horemans led by 310 to Schaefer's 35 and seemed to have the titleholder at his mercy.

Horemans Defeated Champion Schaefer

NEW YORK Nov. 17.—Edmond Horemans the Belgian defeated Jake Schaefer champion by the tally of 500 points to 321 in the ninth game of the 18.2 ball line billiard championship tournament tonight. The title holder was careless and a bit slouchy about his billiards at the start. This proved costly, for Horemans by wonderful masses put together runs of 144 and 111 that smothered the champion who went down to defeat for the first time since he won the title a year ago at Chicago.

Jake Schaefer won the bank for lead in the night game. He missed the opening shot and Edmond Horemans, the Belgian, likewise put a zero as his contribution to his string. The Schaefer got the orbs on the short rail in his second inning. He made six and then flubbed a short direct carom because of playing an extended reach over the table. Horemans followed with some pretty cue work. His 14th shot was a long masse of four feet.

Next he played a trick drive and kiss that was perfectly timed which made the crowd laugh. As he went along to nurse he made frequent use of his famous masse.

At 33 he had the globes directly in the middle of the table. His touch and speed was without flaw and he easily went along past the fifty mark.

Brilliant masses and dainty, prettily conceived kiss shots were freely sprinkled thru the rim along with bits of line nursing as he neared the hundredth tally. At 100 he had a line nurse the balls being so perfectly bunched that they might have been spanned by the hand. There was nothing hurried about Horemans as he moved into the second hundred points. He studied each position carefully. At 135 he brought off a spiral masse that was a jewel of its kind. Three shots later ticked off a bank that was a rarely clever exposition of English.

It was a masse on a tight line-up on the end rail that finally sent him away from the table on his miss at 144. At the end of the inning, Horemans led 144 to 6 and Schaefer came to the table, missed a short single cushion, which resulted in the Belgian going right on.

Schaefer was careless as he stepped to the table. He paid the penalty with a miss which resulted in Horemans backing his great run with another cluster that tallied 111. HOME COMING GAME AT ILLINOIS TODAY

Illinois Will Meet Wesleyan This Afternoon In Last Home Game of Season — Visitors Have Heavy Line.

At 2:30 o'clock this afternoon, Illinois College meets Wesleyan University in the last home college game of the season. The game will be played rain or shine and regardless of the condition of the field. The footing is bound to be slippery and treacherous and the ball will be difficult to handle. Both teams played on muddy fields last Saturday and both teams won in spite of the heavy going. Consequently both teams will be accustomed to the conditions of the weather and field which will prevail this afternoon.

The Wesleyan line will be extremely heavy as it averages 188 pounds per man according to the personnel announced by Coach Wimberly of the Wesleyan team. The visiting back field weighs in at 167 pounds on the average. These figures give Wesleyan a small advantage in weight in both line and backfield.

The probable Wesleyan line-up, as telegraphed to Coach Harmon by Coach Wimberly, does not contain the names of Gottschalk, captain of the Green and White team, and Haussler, regular half-back.

Captain Gottschalk, playing sometimes at tackle and other times at end, has been putting up a wonderful exhibition this season. It was he who broke thru the Millikin line last Saturday and blocked a kick. The ball was recovered by a Wesleyan man for a touchdown which spelled defeat for Millikin.

To those who saw Haussler play on the local field two years ago he needs no introduction. His runs from punt formation and his passing featured the game that year. He is reported to be suffering from a boil on his neck. The chances are that if these two old reliables are not started this afternoon by Coach Wimberly they will be on the sidelines ready and anxious to jump into the fray.

The probable lineups of the two teams is as follows:

NEBRASKA AND KANSAS SAGGIES TODAY

KANSAS CITY, MO., Nov. 17.—The University of Nebraska and the Kansas Aggies undefeated in the Missouri Valley Conference meet at Lincoln tomorrow in what may be deciding championship battle of the season. The Cornhuskers are conceded the advantage in weight and experience, but the Kansas farmers are expected to stage a strong fight.

Drake another undefeated conference eleven is scheduled to face Grinnell at Des Moines. The bull dogs have triumphed over Kansas, Washington and Ames. Grinnell is near the bottom of the percentage column with two games lost and one won.

Missouri, in the first game since the resignation of Coach Tom Kelly meets Washington University at Columbia.

I. S. D. SHOWS BOYS FROM MISSOURI

Coach Burns' Team Runs Over M. S. D. Rolling Up Score of 66 Points — Missouri Scored Touchdown on Fumble.

Coach Burns' I. S. D. team swamped the school team from the "Show Me" state on Illinois field yesterday afternoon. When the smoke of battle cleared away the score was I. S. D., 66; M. S. D., 6.

Had the field been dry the local team probably would have made the score 156 to 6. Missouri's only score came in the first quarter when I. S. D. fumbled and Rice grabbed the ball and with good interference ran 65 yards for a touchdown.

It developed soon after the first kickoff that the visitors were outclassed. I. S. D. holding Missouri for downs after the first kickoff took the ball and marched straight down the field for a touchdown. Missouri managed to hold the locals down in the first quarter. However, Massinkoff, Rose and Crabbe got to going in the second quarter and after that I. S. D. scored almost at will.

Massinkoff, Crabbe and Rose ran the ends and plunged thru the line almost at will and touchdowns came thick and fast. I. S. D. also worked the forward pass successfully and seldom failed to put it across. The I. S. D. line also held like a stone wall and Missouri was seldom able to penetrate it for gains. She was equally unsuccessful in running the I. S. D. ends. Sellers did good work place kicking for the point after touchdown.

Casey at full back was the bright particular star for the visitors. He was the only man who could make anything thru the line and was the mainstay of the team. When the locals stopped him they practically crushed the Missouri offense.

First Quarter. I. S. D. kicked off to Missouri. After trying to gain Missouri was forced to kick. Massinkoff, Rose and Crabbe immediately started a march down the field and Massinkoff completed it with a 15 yard run for a touchdown. Sellers place kicked for the point.

I. S. D. again kicked off and forced Missouri to kick. After making first down I. S. D. fumbled and Rice scooped up the ball on his 35 yard line and with good interference ran for a touchdown. The try for goal failed. This was only a flash in the pan and thereafter the visitors were never within striking distance of the I. S. D. goal.

Both teams held after the next kick off and the quarter ended with the ball in possession of I. S. D.

Second Quarter. When play was resumed Rose tore off ten yards. Massinkoff followed with another first down placing the ball on the 7 yard line. Crabbe ploughed thru for the touchdown but Sellers missed a place kick for the extra point. I. S. D. again kicked off and the ball rolled over the goal line, Mennen falling on it for a touchdown. Sellers placed kicked the goal, making the score I. S. D., 20; M. S. D., 6.

After the kickoff Missouri was compelled to kick and Miller ran the ball back 50 yards. I. S. D. worked the ball to the 10 yard line where it was fumbled and Missouri recovered. Missouri made first down and then I. S. D. held and took the ball. Miller made 10 yards around end. Crabbe put the ball on the two foot line and Massinkoff took it over. Sellers failed in the place kick for the extra point. Score, I. S. D., 26; M. S. D., 6.

After kicking off again Montegard picked a Missouri pass out of the air that had been partly blocked by one of his own men and ran 35 yards for a touchdown. I. S. D. then crossed her opponent when Massinkoff received a forward pass over the goal.

line for the point. Score, I. S. D., 33; M. S. D., 6.

After kicking off and holding Missouri and compelling her to kick I. S. D. fumbled and Missouri recovered the ball. Time was called for the half shortly afterward.

Third Quarter. I. S. D. kicked off and Missouri could not gain and kicked. Massinkoff ran the end for 20 yards placing the ball on Missouri's 12 yard line. The Missouri team then showed its best football of the afternoon taking the ball on downs on her five yard line.

Missouri kicked. Rose tore off 35 yards. Crabbe put the ball on the two yard line and then took it over on the next play. Sellers place kicked for the point. Score, I. S. D., 40; M. S. D., 6.

Missouri fumbled the kickoff but recovered the ball. After failing to gain Missouri kicked to Rose who carried the ball back 10 yards. Massinkoff got 18 yards on a delayed pass. Crabbe carried the ball to the one yard line and Rose took it over. The try for the point failed. Score, I. S. D., 46; M. S. D., 6.

I. S. D. made an outside kick and got the ball as the quarter ended.

Fourth Quarter. Massinkoff gained 15 yards on the first play. Rose passed to Massinkoff who ran 25 yards for a touchdown. Sellers place kicked the point. Score, I. S. D., 53; M. S. D., 6.

I. S. D. kicked off and Missouri fumbled Crabbe recovering the ball. Massinkoff circled the end for a touchdown. Missouri blocked the kick for the point. Score, I. S. D., 59; M. S. D., 6.

Missouri received the kickoff and was soon forced to kick. I. S. D. again took the ball and despite a penalty for crawling carried the ball down the field. Massinkoff going over for the touchdown and Sellers kicked for the point. Score, I. S. D., 66; M. S. D., 6.

After receiving the kickoff Missouri was forced to kick. Dillard made 25 yards around end. Rose passed to Massinkoff for the first down. The final whistle sounded with the ball on Missouri's five yard line. The lineup: M. S. D.

DUN'S REPORT WILL SAY TODAY

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—Dun's
tomorrow will say:
"New buying has not held at the recent active rate in some important markets, but many important factors are so well supplied with business that the diminished demand does not affect sentiment adversely. With an inventory period close at hand and a holiday season approaching, a continuance of the slowing down process in other than retail branches would not be surprising, nor would it be a reason for loss of confidence.
The fact stands out plainly that pressure of accumulated orders maintains outputs at a relatively high level in leading industries and it is not uncommon now to hear of some manufacturers being engaged farther ahead than at any time in two years.

Market Report

Associated PressSTOCK MARKET HAS BUSY SESSIONS

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—Speculators for the decline resumed their operations at the beginning of today's stock market but were unable to make much headway except in a few independent steels, public utility, rubber, low priced rail and oil shares, fluctuations being within much narrower limits. The general list showed better resistance to pressure and while trading was not extensive closing prices were mainly higher.
Two factors which have influenced recent selling were liquidation thru brokerage houses desiring to make a favorable showing on the stock exchange questionnaire asking their position on the market and so-called "taxation selling" which usually makes its appearance at this time and continues to the end of the year. The manner in which a number of stocks recovered indicated that the market was oversold in spots.
Possibility of adverse tax and railroad legislation by the next congress which were used by bear investors to hammer down prices, but not believed to have caused much trading, by investment interests but has had a restraining effect on the buying operations of newcomers into the market.

Agreement of house leaders to take up the ship subsidy bill next Thursday with a final vote on Nov. 29, stimulated the buying of shipping shares.

Changes in oils were mixed.
Standard Oil of New Jersey sold off a point and fractional recesssions were noted in California Petroleum and Pierce Oil, while general Asphalt and Standard Oil of California were higher.

U. S. Steel common moved up a point to 104½, but some independent steels were weak. Bethlehem common sold off early four points on a turnover of 300 shares and the B. declined 4 while Lackawanna, Midvale and Vandalia sold off small fractions to one point.

Gulf States Steel moved up nearly two points.

Weakness was noted in the Erie issues, Chicago & Alton preferred, Chicago & Eastern Illinois,
"Katy" common and preferred and Missouri Pacific common and preferred.

Total sales were 926,000
shares.
Call money opened at 4½ per cent, dropped to four before noon and then to 3½ the lowest rate since Sept. 18, when it closed at 3½ per cent. Time money continued on a five per cent basis and commercial at 4½.

Sharp recovery took place in foreign exchange demand sterling getting just below $4.48 and franc checks closing 7 cents for the first time in two weeks.

Total bond sales (par value) were $12,633,000.

REPORT OF ANTI TB DIRECTORS' MEETING

Miss Gladys Knapp to Direct Sale of Christmas Seals—Dr. Milligan Reports on State Conference.

The directors' meeting of the Anti Tuberculosis league was held recently in the Chamber of Commerce rooms. The plans for service during the winter were discussed and various committees were named to carry on the work of the league.

The committee named to select a county chairman for the sale of Christmas seals here named Miss Gladys Knapp as chairman. Miss Frances Strawn was chosen a new director to fill a vacancy on the board.

Dr. Milligan gave a splendid report of the state conference in Springfield. Dr. Palmer was again elected president and Dr. Milligan vice-president for this district. A local tuberculosis society was reported for every county. There are now 500 free beds in the state and about 300 private beds for the care of tuberculosis in the state.

The sale of Christmas seals was a most important topic during the conference. Dr. Jacobs from New York strongly advocated the sale of seals as the selling of health, and urged a six to eight per cent sale—"the way to make people live longer" was used as slogan.

The next regular meeting of the directors will be December 11.

SELFISHNESS BASIC IN TODAY'S TROUBLES

Rev. M. L. Pontius Gave Rotarians New Line of Thought—Selfishness Makes Even Welfare Work Inefficient.

Rev. M. L. Pontius in an address before the Rotary club at the Pacific hotel Friday noon, asserted that selfishness has had too large a place in world development.

Mr. Pontius was speaking upon the theme, "Solving Community Problems," and said that he was presenting part of the thoughts that were given in a much longer address before the welfare conference in East St. Louis.

Mr. Pontius said that on the conference program he followed Clarence Darrow, who in a lengthy address asserted and sought to prove that society has made no real advancement in a thousand years.

In partial contradiction of that statement Mr. Pontius cited some of the wonderful achievements that came to pass in the forty year period from 1874 to 1914. He listed the telephone, the telegraph and a number of great inventions and said that in addition, that forty year period gave to the world antiseptic surgery and the germ theory of disease. In fact, those years brought to a climax the study and investigation and advancement of a long previous period.

The World War.

"Then in 1914," said the speaker, "the pistol shot of a crazed man brought the world cataclysm. Statistics show that the world war caused an expenditure of three hundred and sixty billions, whereas the total wealth of the world had been figured at less than that amount. It cost also nineteen million lives. The events of the war years gave proof that there had been too much selfishness in the preceding years—too great a tendency for people to be only genuinely interested in their own particular theories, or their own special line of activity."

Continuing Mr. Pontius astounded his hearers with the statement that 90 per cent of the welfare work being done today is inefficient. He charged that this is partially due to selfishness and cited the fact that in comparatively few communities a budget system be adopted for philanthropic work because of the jealousness among individuals and organizations.

While selfishness is a partial cause of inefficiency, Mr. Pontius estimated that 50 per cent is due to unscientific methods. It too often happens that the individual is the objective instead of taking into account the needs of groups or of society as a whole.

The surprising figures were given, taken from a report made at the convention, that last year one out of every twenty-eight families in Springfield received aid thru some relief organization. This condition, along with others, was taken as proof for the statement that there must be attention to the race as a whole if the Anglo-Saxon people are to continue to hold their place of supremacy.

Another unusual line of thought was developed by the speaker's statement that a year or two ago as a Rotarian he had heartily advocated the back to the school movement which had an excellent purpose but which was unscientific.

Wrong Development.

Mr. Pontius declared that study reveals the fact that many boys and girls who leave school before completing the work have at that time received all the educational development of the line that they are capable of receiving. What is needed is an understanding of their individual cases and training along special instead of general lines. Too often sending them back to school for training for which they are not mentally fitted results in giving them false ideals, holding up possibilities for them that cannot be realized and in stunting their lines of mental or physical activities in lines in which they could develop.

The speaker made a plea for highly educated and specially trained persons at the head of relief and philanthropic organizations.

Before the address mass singing was led by A. C. Metcalf and a short program by Ferd Haber-corn, Roger Carter and Bert O'Connell, Illinois college students, with mandolin, guitar and cello. The several numbers were very enthusiastically received.

The guests of the day were G. L. Keiser of Chicago; William Farr, Kenosha, Wis.; Rev. Vincent Lacey, Grigsbyville; Rev. J. F. Langton, Rev. G. E. Sickney, E. C. Rutherford and Supt. of Schools B. F. Shafer of Jacksonville.

Tellinghast, wife of superintendent of the Missouri School for the Deaf; Miss Evelyn Humphreys, Miss Julia Dougherty and Miss Ethel Falt, of the teaching staff; Major Vernon B. BRANER WILL FOUND VALID BY JURORS

Finding Made Friday Night After Arguments Had Been Presented—Court Adjourned to Monday.

The jury which heard the evidence in the Braner will case returned a verdict about 8 o'clock Friday night, in which the will was upheld. The bill was filed by Charles Smith directed against Ennis Patton, et al., who were named as legatees, in which it was sought to show that Mr. Braner was not of sound mind when he made his will and attached thereto at various times the six codicils.

After the testimony had been given in the case, Judge Owen P. Thompson and Paul P. Thompson addressed the jurors on behalf of the complainant and Judge Layman and Walter Wright made the argument for the defense. The instructions were given by Judge Smith and after comparatively brief consideration the jury brought in the verdict sustaining the will.

Judge Smith adjourned court until Monday morning.

GETTING NEAR TO THE TRENTON ROCK

The drill in the deep well now being drilled on the Cleary farm under supervision of C. F. Rhodes was down to a depth of 955 feet Friday night. Some oil and gas were found at this depth, but the drill is still about 350 feet above the sand where Mr. Rhodes believes that oil will be found.

To be exact, Mr. Rhodes' estimate is that at the depth of 1,285 feet the drill will have penetrated a considerable distance into the Trenton limestone and the facts about the test will be known—an oil well or a dry hole.

Thus far the structure has been just as anticipated and Mr. Rhodes believes that the formation is exactly like that at Centralia. The drilling there these days is resulting in big producers.
